Huddle Up for Taste Test Breakfast Friday

- Select one Friday a month during football season and set up a taste-test station in the cafeteria outside the serving line.
- Choose two items that feature different food groups that are served at breakfast and distribute samples.
- Have a Fuel Up to Play 60 student team help distribute the items and tell the students about them and when they will be featured next on the menu.
- If possible have the items on the menu the following week.
- The taste-test station can also be used to introduce a new item that will be on the menu.

Huddle Up for Breakfast Friday

- Select one Friday a month during football season and host a Football Friday breakfast. Students who come to breakfast and wear any type of football clothing are entered in a drawing.
- Ask local business partners to donate items or money to buy prizes for students.
- Examples could be gift cards to sports stores, free smoothie coupons and free passes for local gyms. Select one winner each Friday.
